

Modes of Assessments

There are four forms of assessments,

(A) Open Book

Students are allowed to bring in all materials, books, lecture notes, etc. in both hardcopy and softcopy form. However, all electronic devices brought into the exam hall must be permitted by the examiner/ course coordinator and locked down appropriately by ExamSoft or other suitable technology to block Internet access. (See Note)

(Note: Students must not communicate with other persons through these permitted electronic devices during the assessments if their devices are permitted with internet access. They are liable to disciplinary action if they breach this rule.)

(B) Open Internet

Students are allowed to access the internet for information and work processes, but not for communication with other candidates or human entities.

(C) Closed Book (with authorized materials)

Students are allowed to bring in certain materials as specified by the examiners, e.g. one A4-sized formula sheet, lecture notes or textbooks.

(D) Closed Book

Students are not allowed to bring in any reference materials into the examination hall.

 Connotes continuous assessments and examinations*