

Use of Dictionaries in Assessments

Open Book

- Printed dictionaries are allowed to be used.
- Electronic dictionaries may be permitted in some assessments. Students are advised to confirm with their course instructors.

Closed Book (with authorized materials)

- If the course instructor has indicated dictionaries as one of the authorized materials for the closed book exam, only printed versions are permitted unless otherwise indicated.

Closed Book

- All dictionaries (printed and electronic) are not allowed to be used.

Note:

Students from non-English speaking countries who are on Exchange Programmes in NUS may be allowed to use dictionaries for some assessments. They are required to consult the course instructors in advance for permission if they wish to use dictionaries.

This is NOT applicable to International Students who are pursuing degree programmes in NUS as a minimum level of English proficiency is necessary for admission.*

23 February 2018